MEETING OF THE PARLIAMENTARY CRIME AND CORRUPTION COMMITTEE

TRANSCRIPT OF PROCEEDINGS

THURSDAY, 23 JUNE 2022

Brisbane

THURSDAY, 23 JUNE 2022

The committee met at 8.31 am.

CHAIR: Good morning, everybody. With the time now past 8.30 am, I would like to open this meeting of the Parliamentary Crime and Corruption Committee. I am Jon Krause, member for Scenic Rim and chair of the committee. With me today are Michael Crandon, member for Coomera; and Mark Robinson, member for Oodgeroo. We have received apologies for this morning's meeting from Jonty Bush, member for Cooper; Jess Pugh, member for Mount Ommaney; Jennifer Howard, member for Ipswich, who is substituting for Jimmy Sullivan, the member for Stafford, until further notice; and Don Brown, member for Capalaba, who is substituting for Mrs Melissa McMahon, member for Macalister, until further notice.

As we do not have a quorum for this morning's meeting at this stage, we are unable to proceed with today's agenda at this point. The standing orders provide that, where a quorum is not present at a meeting of the committee, the chairperson shall suspend the proceedings of the committee until a quorum is present or adjourn the committee. In accordance with standing order 201, I now suspend these proceedings for a period of 15 minutes. If at that time the committee remains inquorate, the proceedings will be adjourned.

Proceedings suspended from 8.33 am to 8.49 am.

CHAIR: Fifteen minutes has elapsed now since the meeting's suspension. As the meeting remains inquorate, this meeting of the Parliamentary Crime and Corruption Committee is now adjourned.

The committee adjourned at 8.49 am.
