Subject: Uber

To whom it may concern

As you do not live in the real world I would like to to let you know that Driving for uber is the only way most people like me can get employment I am over sixty. I am never going to make a fortune doing this but it does keep the wolfs away from the door including Centrelink if you keep adding extra costs there is no way I can continue to drive for uber which would be a shame. Think outside the box adding extra cost to drive for uber might put a lot more people in the dole queue.
