

Inquiry into e-mobility safety and use in Queensland

Submission No: 198

Submitted by:

Publication: Making the submission public but withholding your name

Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

The current laws of kids under 12 not being able to ride them and 12-16 years only if supervised by an adult are fine - however they are not advertised and no-one knows them. If the laws were communicated widely then we can start having the right ages of children using them to start with. Once we get the right age group using the devices, we can then look at specific rules that are appropriate for different areas.