I love the e-bike as part of my commute with my children, but happily adhere to the speed limits and laws including the use of helmets. I think it's absolutely crazy that teenagers speed along without helmets and no one pulls them up on it. I love the use of e-bikes as a mode of transport but no one even enforces the current laws. Don't take them away from us or stop the use of them altogether just because most people don't think the laws apply to them because of lack of police monitoring. Love my e-bike and want to keep using it properly.
