While shopping at Q Centre about a year ago I was almost mowed down as I exited a dress shop. I just caught a movement to the right of me and I took one step back, thank goodness I did, this YP on a scooter flashed past me at great speed, if it had hit me, I truly think I would not have survived the assault. It took me some time to gather myself together, I was so shaken and extremely angry! They go faster on the pavement than cars do on the road, pedestrians don't stand a chance. Hard to believe that you don't have restrictions for these vehicles, who do you sue if you are unfortunate and get hit.
