Submitter Comments:

When stepping from a bus at Pacific Paradise several months ago, I was flung to the ground by a heavy impact to my right side. After a few seconds I realised what happened. The boy on the e-bike had been travelling very fast and was very apologetic. My back hurt and I had bad cuts and bruises on elbows and knees. In retrospect I should have gone to hospital for this to be recorded but someone drove me home. As a result I have ongoing back issues.
