Submitter Comments:

It's utterly outrageous that Premier Crisafulli intends to change laws in order to facilitate his government's destruction of Victoria Park. The park belongs to the people of Brisbane. It is not the playground for developers to do as they please. There are several alternative sites available, and existing facilities that can be upgraded. I could also add that Crisafulli once promised there would be no new stadiums built, but that's just one more hollow, broken promise.
