

Transport Affordability Amendment Bill 2026

Submission No: 009
Submission By: Matt Prescott
Publication: Making the submission and your name public

The proposal to limit the ability for fuel companies to price gouge by limiting the daily variation in petrol costs would make a significant difference by giving households an opportunity to better manage fuel costs in the home budget.