Keep public transport at $0 .50 fares for everyone permanently.

Fuel to not rise more than .50 cents at a time.

Bank Interest Rates to not rise again, as the inflation figures are due to the cost of living being more expensive groceries, insurances and everyday goods and services.

First Home Owners/ Affordability Schemes to include Males or Females who have for what ever reason lost their first home when a Breakup/Divorce occurred. They need a second chance to own a home.

Men paying Child Support to NOT be penalised by having their payments INCREASED when their (ex partner has another baby to other men), as is the process of Child Support at the moment.
