Submitter Comments:

The treatment of animals including native wildlife, cattle and all factory farmed animals in Australia has sunk to a new low. It's hard to put into words the anxiety it causes so many people witnessing the complete disregard shown to animals. Cattle left standing in trucks in the searing heat for way too long. No shade or shelter provided in feedlots. Sheep left with no shade or shelter. It's not acceptable to treat animals this way. Cage chickens suffer their whole lives. I could go on all day. Just because they don't vote doesn't mean they should be treated badly
