

Inquiry into the Animal Care and Protection Amendment Bill 2022

Submission No: 118
Submitted by: David Kennedy
Publication: Make my submission and my name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

Sadly these amendments fall far short of a comprehensive overall of animal protection. If horses are deemed sentient enough to need CCTV monitoring in slaughterhouses why don't farm animals? Is their capacity to suffer any less than horses and if not why treat them any different? In the UK farm animals do have such slaughterhouse monitoring..... Australia is gaining a reputation internationally as a nation reluctant to treat animals with respect and protection. The weak amendments proposed seem to confirm that reputation.