Whilst I appreciate that there is a new Bill being processed in 2022 and there are some improvements for animal welfare in Queensland, I feel that it still falls quite short on a lot of animal welfare issues. My reasons for feeling the Bill is inadequate are as under:1. Calf roping is not a sport. It is cruel and unnecessary. CALF ROPING SHOULD BE BANNED COMPLETELY.2. There should be CCTV FOOTAGE AT ALL SLAUGHTER-HOUSE FACILITIES.3. There should be POWER GIVEN TO INSPECTORS TO ENTER SLAUGHTER-HOUSES & FACTORY FARMS WITHOUT A WARRANT OR NOTICE.4. There should be a BAN ON PRONG COLLARS, AS WELL AS OTHER CRUEL TRAINING DEVICES LIKE ELECTRIC COLLARS.5. MAKE GREATER CHANGES TO FACTORY FARMING - THERE SHOULD BE NO EXCUSES FOR ACTS OF CRUELTY WHATSOEVER.6. MAKE GREATER CHANGES TO ANIMAL WELFARE - it is time for more action!7. NO PERSON CONVICTED OF ANIMAL CRUELTY SHOULD EVER BE PERMITTED TO OWN AN ANIMAL AGAIN.
