

Inquiry into the Animal Care and Protection Amendment Bill 2022

Submission No: 488
Submitted by: Mark Whitling
Publication: Make my submission and my name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

Glue traps for mice and rats are unfortunately still for sale and widely available in Queensland. I am urging you to ban the sale of these traps as they are inhumane and indiscriminate. They are currently easily available and people don't use them properly or check them often, leaving animals to die a long and painful death. Often other wildlife and birds become also glued to these cruel traps and die a painful death.