

Inquiry into the Animal Care and Protection Amendment Bill 2022

Submission No: 506
Submitted by: Tolga Bat Rescue and research
Publication: Make my submission and my name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

We have worked for many decades rescuing wildlife out of large-mesh backyard netting. Many are euthanased because of the extent of their injuries. Many are in care for long periods of time. It is a simple matter of banning the wrong type of netting, following in the footsteps of Victoria. We currently recommend netting with a 2mm mesh though 5mm is acceptable. The netting section of our wildlife friendly fencing website says it all.
<https://www.wildlifefriendlyfencing.com/WFF/Netting.html>