There are so many areas where cruelty to animals happens , especially in factory farming, but I am particularly concerned about the glue traps which are available for sale. Animals and birds are caught in these traps by being firmly glued to them, the resulting death is slow, torturous and inhumane. Many of our wildlife are caught in them as well. It is not possible to attempt to rescue an animal from these traps . I would like to see these banned from sale in Australia. With regards,
