

Inquiry into the Animal Care and Protection Amendment Bill 2022

Submission No: 561
Submitted by: Hans Fankhanel
Publication: Make my submission and my name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

I refer to Glue Traps in particular. These traps are easily available in hardware shops and other retail outlets. They are totally unacceptable as far as the humane killing of pest animals is concerned. They often attract animals that are not intended to be caught or killed. Death is slow and painful. Most of the time people that set the traps do not check them frequently. These traps should be banned from sale and their use made illegal.