

Inquiry into the Animal Care and Protection Amendment Bill 2022

Submission No: 611
Submitted by: Eric Owens
Publication: Make my submission and my name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

Times change in so many ways and we always have the power to make things right and animals always have adjusted to living in our society and rely on us to care and protect from them as this is the way was intended. Let's revise these laws and do right by the animals and the ones who care for the animals as Australia is home to many wonderful animals that portray culture and deserve to have a chance to live their lives just as we do.