Submitter Comments:

We need to stop the sale of animal glue traps. I have seen on social media that these traps not only can cause a long and painful death for animals caught in the trap but it does not discriminate as to which animals will be trapped. This means we are needlessly killing any animal that becomes trapped. We already have lost too many animals due to fire, flood, and cats and dogs not being kept under control by their owners. Please consider my comments. Kind regards.
