

Inquiry into the Animal Care and Protection Amendment Bill 2022

Submission No: 716
Submitted by: Jami Dale
Publication: Make my submission and my name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

Glue Traps that do not have a shield/housing around them should be banned. There is no sense in selling something that traps anything other than the insects it is intended to capture. Wildlife, pets, children and even an unsuspecting adult can easily be stuck to unshielded traps. The cost of placing the trap in a shield is trivial when all products are required to utilize them.