

Inquiry into the Animal Care and Protection Amendment Bill 2022

Submission No: 717
Submitted by: Peter Jack
Publication: Make my submission and my name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

Glue traps need to be banned as they can catch a wide range of Australian native wild life that will die a slow death. As well they are too easily available and most likely not checked in time to save off target species, even if they can be saved. Our native wild life are under enough threat already without another indiscriminate means of killing them.