

Inquiry into the Animal Care and Protection Amendment Bill 2022

Submission No: 727
Submitted by: Kerry Chamberlain
Publication: Make my submission and my name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

I am absolutely horrified and appalled that we allow the sale of these glue traps - which have been banned in other countries, for good reason! They are cruel and indiscriminate, causing suffering to any animal that attaches itself to them, dying a slow, painful death, sometimes gnawing at their own flesh to remove themselves. Pest species or not, there is NO excuse for this level of cruelty. They must be removed from sale and banned without delay!