

Inquiry into the Animal Care and Protection Amendment Bill 2022

Submission No: 738
Submitted by: Noelene Musumeci
Publication: Make my submission and my name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

ended Act include:It is a fact that animals are sentient, are capable of suffering emotional as well as physical trauma, and our humanity means that actions which cause them suffering in any way should be avoided.We therefore need the establishment an independent office of animal welfareanda requirement that CCTV in slaughterhouses apply to all facilities and all species of animals slaughtered.To address other issues of cruelty,a stronger penalty for tail dockinga ban of spaying of cattlea ban on 1080a ban on the mutilation of farmed animals.