Submitter Comments:

I believe the sale and use of glue traps should be banned as they are inhumane, often leaving wildlife stuck in them to die a slow, torturous death as they are rarely checked after being put out. It is unacceptable to knowingly have an item for sale that can lead to unnecessary, prolonged and painful deaths of animals. Other countries such as Germany, Iceland, Ireland, New Zealand and The Netherlands have banned glue traps and it's about time we caught up. We are a unique country with our own unique wildlife that relies on us to do the right thing by them. Let's do our part and catch up to other parts of the world doing right by their wildlife. Let's ban a device that threatens their life and leads to a painful, unnecessary death.
