

Inquiry into the Animal Care and Protection Amendment Bill 2022

Submission No: 840
Submitted by: Janice Mackenzie
Publication: Make my submission and my name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

These glue traps are indiscriminate - trapping whatever small creature crawls onto them. Even if traps WERE targeted & only trapped pestanimals, their death is a long protracted one. This cannot and should not be tolerated. Glue traps are unfortunately seen as a 'set andforget' system, leaving animals to die a long slow death. There are other more humane options available. Please ban these traps, Queensland & Australia are better than this!