

Inquiry into the Animal Care and Protection Amendment Bill 2022

Submission No: 1019
Submitted by: Cameron McDermid
Publication: Make my submission and my name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

Thank you to the committee for consideration of this issue. These type of traps are totally unsuitable for general use as has been proven by several proof of outcome photos. Killing of non pest species is not an acceptable outcome and even worse when our native creatures of various types are dying inappropriately. Bunnings revenue from the limited sales numbers is such that it would not be substantial or impact there business. Please stop this ill considered product being soldPlease. Thanks Cameron.