

Inquiry into the Animal Care and Protection Amendment Bill 2022

Submission No: 1151
Submitted by: Kerry O'Meara
Publication: Make my submission and my name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

I am strongly opposed to the sale of any product that risks killing birds or animals while marketing itself as a product to control pests. Glue traps are dangerous to some small animals so should therefore be taken off shelves, and alternatives be found to fill this role. We are a clever country. We can do this.