I wish to make a following comments to the committee regarding banning the use of glue trap. I am a scientist and lived all my life to help and discover many ways to better the life of humans, however, sometimes we forget what is happening on our own backyard. People using glue traps to get ride of unwanted animals but unfortunately they never bother to think that how these unfortunate animals that they got stuck to these glue traps might be suffering a horrifying death. Most people who buy these traps and use them they never bother to check on them to free the animal that is been caught and often animals who are stuck in glue traps suffer injuries and a slow excruciating death. Please be kind to these animals who can not voice their pain, and ban the use of glue traps once for all. Thank you, [REDACTED]
