

Inquiry into the Animal Care and Protection Amendment Bill 2022

Submission No: 1346
Submitted by: Michelle Jensz
Publication: Make my submission and my name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

These glue traps are proving hazardous not only to the pests they were intended for but also to our native wild life. They are cruel and those animals trapped are left to die slowly and painfully. We are a modern society who does not need cruel methods to remove unwanted animals from our homes or gardens. Undertake some research and see for yourself. Please ban them so our native animals can be saved.