Dear Sir / Madam

I am writing to express my request for the Banning of Glue Traps.

As you are undertaking a review of the current cruelty legislation I wish to express that in my opinion these traps are inhumane and indiscriminate .

They are currently available from Bunnings, and not used correctly or checked often. They leave Animals, Birds and other species trapped to die a long and painfully cruel death and as such should be banned completely.

We in actual fact really need a Royal Commission into the treatment of Animals, of how we care for our unique and precious Wildlife also affected by these traps which should be banned.

Please stop these traps , we need more humane methods, and methods not affecting everything landing on these terrible things, which go on to suffer an agonising death.

Yours Sincerely

Mrs J Kinsella
