Good morning,I wish to comment on glue traps.After seeing online footage and reading wildlife carers experiences with dealing with injured birds and animals I strongly believe they should be banned.The traps cause immense and indiscriminant suffering. It is 2022 and yet we still continue to allow inhumane methods of 'pest' control which impact heavily on our native fauna.People need to be educated and taught how to respect our fellow creatures. Banning the sale of these torture traps and explaining why may be one more step forward to achieving this.The risk of death and injury is compounded because some people do not use the traps in
