I would like to add my voice to making the sale & usage of glue traps illegal in every state in the country. I am at a loss to understand as to why this kind of abject cruelty has been allowed to continue for so long. I understand every issue boils down to values, however in any decent person's language, the determination to make money out of this kind of horror is clearly unacceptable. I look forward to an email to tell me glue traps have been taken off the market.
