

Inquiry into the Animal Care and Protection Amendment Bill 2022

Submission No: 1473
Submitted by: Vicki Thomas
Publication: Make my submission and my name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

In relation to the sale of glue traps -. These dreadful things are banned in many countries why does Australia lag behind when it comes to the treatment of animals both domestic and wild. These traps are inhuman and indiscriminate . People do not use the traps properly or check them often enough - this leaves insects, reptiles, birds and other animals to die long painful deaths.I feel strongly that the glue traps should be removed from sale in Australia immediately!