

Agriculture and Fisheries and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2023

Submission No: 50
Submitted by: Gordon Mills
Publication: Making the submission and your name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

Banning certain dog breeds is not an ethical and effective way to avoid dog attacks; e.g. I have met some of the calmest and well behaved Pit Bull Terriers. The cause of dog aggression is usually caused by human lack of care, neglect or cruelty, or even by encouraging dogs to be aggressive towards other humans and animals. Legislation should be focused on what humans are doing or not doing.