Information for witnesses, briefing officers, the media and audience members

The committee's proceedings are proceedings of the Queensland Parliament and subject to the parliament's Standing Rules and Orders.

Only the committee, visiting members and invited witnesses may participate. Under the Standing Orders, members of the public may be admitted to, or excluded from, the hearing at the discretion of the committee.

Witnesses will not be required to give evidence under oath, but witnesses are reminded that intentionally misleading the committee is a serious offence.

This hearing will be broadcast live on Parliament TV, and available for viewing afterwards from the Committee's Parliament.TV Archive. A transcript of the proceedings will also be published in due course.

Attendance on the Parliament Precinct due to COVID restrictions: Please read the current advice on the Committee Business Schedule page about the rules to gain access to the Queensland Parliament precinct for committee proceedings. Please contact the committee secretariat for further details.

Those present for the proceedings are advised that they may be in photos taken by Parliamentary Service staff for purposes including posting on the Parliament's website or social media sites. The Queensland Parliamentary Service is committed to protecting the images collected for this purpose in accordance with the Information Privacy Act 2009.

The committee's media rules covering media coverage of these proceedings are available from committee staff.
