

Inquiry into the economic and regulatory frameworks for Queensland island resorts

Submission No: 17

Submitted by:

Publication: Making the submission public but withholding your name

Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

The treatment of property owners of Keswick Island and the Island it's self has been more than unfair. Only due to media coverage have the owners be able to gain some access and rent out their properties. We need to stop giving leases to unworthy people to the beautiful Whitsunday islands

Submitter Recommendations:

A full investigation into China Bloom and their intended actions for the future of Keswick Island and how they plan to cooperate with property owners and welcome tourism back