

Youth Justice Reform Select Committee inquiry into youth justice reform in Queensland

Submission No: 49

Submitted by: [REDACTED]

Publication: Making the submission public but withholding your name

Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

I'd just like to know what is in the pipeline for change. My young family and I moved to Townsville from Brisbane end of this year and it is hard to describe and comprehend how much safer we felt in Brisbane than we do here. What is changing to make this community feel safe? It feels like it only gets discussed with residents. Where is the voice of government? Where is the voice of change? Please help this town.