Estimates Committee A

BRISBANE QLD 4000

Dear Mr Reeves

I refer to the report of Estimates Committee A in relation to its consideration of Estimates for the Legislative Assembly, the Department of the Premier and Cabinet, and the Department of Public Works, Housing and Racing.

I note that the whole process of Estimates Committee Hearings suffers from the following weaknesses as a mechanism for scrutinizing Government Departments:

- The limit on the number of Questions on Notice able to be asked as part of the Estimates process
- The receipt of replies to Questions on Notice less than 24 hours prior to the actual hearing meeting of the Committee.
- The limited time available for the conduct of the hearings for individual Departments thus limiting the capacity of Parliament to explore issues of concern to finality
- The limit on each questioning session generally to 20 minutes thus inhibiting the capacity of Committee members to pursue issues of interest to finality.
- The use by Ministers and Government Members of questions to provide a basis for propaganda statements, grandstanding and media stunts rather than genuinely exploring issues relating to Departmental expenditures.

Whilst the report of the Committee is noted, I would express Reservations in relation to the following:

Legislative Assembly:

- The failure of Acting Speaker Fouras to be able to provide accurate statements of the expenditure on alcohol by Speaker Hollis for himself and his guests in relation to the question taken on notice.

Address: Parliament House
Alice Street Brisbane
Queensland 4000 Australia
Telephone: (07) 3406 7997
Facsimile: (07) 3221 1496
Email: leader@opposition.qld.gov.au
Website: www.springborg.com

- The failure of Acting Speaker Fouras to include in the revenue of the Legislative Assembly the sum of $57,830.28 representing the payment by Speaker Hollis of the cost of overseas travel taken without relevant approval.
- The failure of Acting Speaker Fouras in answer to Non-government Members question No. 4 to identify the individual identity of the person, Speaker, Minister, Member, Department or other body responsible for functions or social gatherings mentioned in that answer.
- The failure of Acting Speaker Fouras to provide details of all guidelines, rules, regulations or other criteria whether published internally or externally used to determine whether functions or social gatherings may be held within the parliamentary precinct.

Premier and Cabinet:

- The failure of the Premier to table the Internal Audit Report of financial transactions associated with the Office of the Speaker received by the Clerk of Parliament on 8 February 2005.
- The failure by the Premier to adequately explain the concerns of the Crime and Misconduct Commission in relation to expenses incurred by Speaker Hollis.
- The failure of the Premier to adequately explain the systems in place to adequately account for consumption of alcohol by Speaker Hollis from his personal bar.
- The failure by the Premier to advise the estimated dollar value of the amphetamines, heroin, ecstasy and cocaine markets in Queensland.
- The failure of the Premier to adequately explain matters relating to expenses incurred by Speaker Hollis that were the subject of consideration by the Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions.
- The failure of the Premier to indicate firm support for the conduct of performance audits by the Auditor General.
- The failure by the Premier to support the introduction of telephone tapping powers to address issues posed by the occurrence of major crime in Queensland.
- The failure of the Premier to support the views of the Crime and Misconduct Commission in relation to the extension of telephone tapping powers to assist in the fight against organised crime including drug trafficking and paedophilia.
- The attempt by the Premier to denigrate expenditures by the Office of the Leader of the Opposition when his own office has displayed a lack of budget accountability for many years.
- The failure of the Premier to indicate continued confidence in the Director General of Queensland Health, Dr Steve Buckland.
- The failure of the Premier to accept responsibility for the policies introduced by his government in relation to overseas trained doctors in Queensland.
- The failure by the Premier to adequately account for the failure of his government to be able to recruit sufficient medical practitioners for the Queensland Public Hospital System.
- The failure of the Premier to seek to recover performance bonuses paid to the former Director General of Queensland Health, Dr Rob Stable, notwithstanding the evidence disclosed at the Morris Commission of Inquiry.
- The failure of the Premier to adequately address issues of compensation following miscarriages of justice in relation to Di Fingleton and Pauline Hanson.

- The failure of the Premier to adequately explain his willingness to meet with known Labor Party associate, Di Fingleton, to discuss issues arising out of her appearance before the Court and his unwillingness to offer Pauline Hanson a similar meeting.
- The failure of the Premier to adequately explain the indemnity rights available to members of Queensland Health and in particular, Mr Peter Leck and Dr Keating of Bundaberg Hospital, and to justify his intervention in limiting the indemnity granted to them.
- The failure of the Premier to adequately explain grants to Centrigen, National Jet Systems, Stellar Call Centres, and Universal Communications Group which had to be terminated or suspended because of a failure to fully meet the objectives of those grants.
- The failure of the Premier to justify the culture of bullying and discrimination applicable in Queensland Health as disclosed by evidence before the Morris and Forster Inquiries.

Public Works, Housing and Racing:

- The failure of the Minister for Public Works, Housing and Racing to answer questions in relation to the projects managed by Project Services. For the second consecutive year, the Minister and his departmental officers have been unable, or unwilling, to provide the Estimates Committee with detail in relation to the role, function and capability of Project Services, a business unit of the Department of Public Works.
- Vague reference was made to a portfolio of over 2,000 projects with an annual turnover of some $600 million. However, the Estimates Committee process should not permit vague references when the effectiveness and efficiency of a business unit is under question.
- Even though Project Services allegedly procure, project manage and risk manage some $600 million worth of projects which allegedly run into the thousands, details could not be provided to ascertain whether the projects are on time, on budget, endured significant cost variances, or whether the risk management costs were advantageous to their “clients”.
- The Parliament and the public have no avenue to check the effectiveness or efficiency of Project Services and there is no documentation to support self-proclaimed assurances regarding the capability of Project Services to deliver the projects on time or on budget.
- It is not good enough for evasive answers to be provided on some $600 million worth of projects. How do the Parliament and the public know with certainty that the projects are being handled and managed with the utmost integrity?
- The Department of Main Roads are required legislatively to annually develop for the Minister’s approval, a Roads Implementation Plan for the year, and for one or more later years. Consistent with the Transport Infrastructure Act 1994, the Roads Implementation Plan includes policies which influence decision about the program of projects, outlines financial provisions, performance targets and a report on the previous year’s performance together with a program of projects of road infrastructure which Main Roads is planning to undertaken over the next five years.
- Perhaps a similar legislative model needs to be adopted to force Project Services to recognise its obligations to the Parliament and to the general public, and publish appropriate documentation that provides a high degree of public transparency and assessment on the professional and technical capability of Project Services.

- In relation to the Department of Housing, the Minister showed that this public policy area is perilously close to collapse. The output performance of the housing department was well below par in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander housing, community housing, community renewal and home purchase assistance in a period of great demand for housing and accommodation in all sectors.
- Time did not permit any proper questioning of several budgetary areas including the Queensland Building Services Authority, the Residential Tenancies Authority, and the Racing Division. Serious consideration must be given to reviewing the time constraints adopted by the Estimates Committees so that time limitations do not restrict proper budgetary analysis and assessment of important public sector entities.

I trust that these Reservations will be noted.

Yours faithfully

DEPARTMENT OF PREMIER AND CABINET

Information provided to the Committee that both the Crime and Misconduct Commission and the Public Service Commissioner were unaware of any of the systemic problems in Queensland Health regarding bullying and intimidation that are currently being revealed through the Forster and Morris Inquiries brings into question the effectiveness of both these organisations.

DEPUTY PREMIER, TREASURER AND MINISTER FOR SPORT

The Shared Service Initiative across government is budgeted to save $100m but the Treasurer was unable to provide any criteria for judging that this program was on target. His response that the Committee should "Trust Treasury; it is as simple as that. I do." provides little comfort.

MINISTER FOR PUBLIC WORKS, HOUSING AND RACING

The Government Business Units comprising CITEC, Goprint, QFleet and S.D.S. have all, by the Minister's own admission experienced difficult trading conditions during the 2004 -05 financial year. Yet there seems to be little effort by the Minister in this budget to force these entities to become more efficient over the 2005-2006 financial year and decrease their dependency on the public purse.
