Thursday, 29 May, 1873.

The Governor's Answer to the Address.

THE GOVERNOR'S ANSWER TO THE ADDRESS.

The PRESIDENT reported that he and other honorable members proceeded to Government House, this day, and there presented to His Excellency the Governor the Address in Reply to the Opening Speech, and that His Excellency was pleased to make the following answer :—

“TO THE HONORABLE THE PRESIDENT, AND
TO THE HONORABLE THE MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL :—

“HONORABLE GENTLEMEN—

“In the name of Her Majesty The Queen, I thank you for the Loyal Address which you have just presented to me.

“I rely with confidence in the assurance which you give me that the various subjects to be brought under your consideration shall receive your careful attention, and I trust that under Providence, your deliberations may tend to the advancement and well-being of the colony.

“NORMANBY.

“Government House,

“29th May, 1873.”
