NOTICES OF MOTION

(Notice given 29 October 2003)

1 MR WELLINGTON to move – That this House resolves to recommend to the 51st Parliament that—
   1. It establishes a new committee to be known as the Health Committee;
   2. That the Committee, initially, be a select Committee with terms of reference to be responsible for monitoring, reviewing and reporting to the House on the operation of the State’s health system, including:
      a) The operation of the State’s hospitals, medical facilities and health programs;
      b) The operation of departments and agencies (State and Local Government) responsible for implementing health policies and funding health initiatives;
      c) The impact of Local, State and Commonwealth government policies and arrangements on the delivery of services at the State and Local level;
   3. That the Committee membership consist of three government and three non government members;
   4. That the Committee be an authorised Committee within the meaning of the Parliament of Queensland Act 2001 and be authorised to call for persons, documents and things;
   5. That consideration be given to funding the Committee by reducing the number of members on each statutory and select committee from seven to six (legislative amendments required) and allocation of modest supplementary funding.

2 MR LINGARD to move – That the Sessional Orders be amended to provide that the order of business for each sitting day up to the commencement of Question Time be as follows—

   9.30am – 10.10am—
   Prayers

Question Time

(Notice given 30 October 2003)

3 MR WELLINGTON to move – That the House pursuant to s.11 of the Parliament of Queensland Act 2001, amend the Standing Rules and Orders to ensure the manner in which a ballot for the election of the Speaker of Parliament is conducted is a secret ballot similar to the way Queenslanders vote in State elections, by omitting the current Standing Order 7 and inserting the new Standing Order 7 circulated in my name, viz—

NEW STANDING ORDER 7

Conduct of Ballot for Speakership

7. (1) (a) Nominations will be made in the usual way (the Presiding Member in the Chair).
(b) Nominations must be seconded and if not seconded the name will not be submitted to the Ballot.
(c) Any Member may decline to accept nomination.

(2) (a) When nominations have been received, and Debate (if any) appears to be concluded, the presiding Member will announce that the Ballot will now be taken, and if no Member rises to speak the Division Bells will be rung.
(b) No fresh nominations can be made after the Division Bells commence.
(c) When the Bars are closed, the Clerk will call the name of each member present to come forward and vote.
(d) Each member after they are called will come to the Clerk at the table, and the Clerk will provide the member with a ballot-paper, initialed by the Clerk.
(e) The Clerk shall check the names of those members to whom ballot papers are given.
(f) The Clerk shall ensure that in or near the Chamber there is a voting compartment of the same nature and type as that used in general elections and that the compartment is constructed and located in such a place and manner to ensure members may complete their ballot in private and secrecy.
(g) A Member will record their vote by placing a cross opposite the name of the Member for whom they wish to vote and then placing their marked and folded ballot paper in a ballot box provided by the Clerk on the table.
(h) When all the ballot–papers have been so deposited, the Clerk, assisted by the other Officers at the table, will count the ballot, and declare the numbers to the House.
(i) The Clerk shall declare as informal any ballot–paper that:
• is unintelligible;
• contains any mark made by the Member, other than the cross signifying for whom the Member wishes to vote;
• contains a vote for someone who has not been duly nominated or seconded.

(3) The procedure set out in (2) will be repeated as often as may be necessary.
(4) When a ballot becomes necessary under Section (c) of Standing Order No. 6 to determine which of the names shall be withdrawn, Members vote for the Member they wish to retain for further ballot.
4 MR SPRINGBORG to move - That this House requests—

• The establishment of a Crime and Misconduct Commission Inquiry, including Public Hearings, into all matters surrounding the investigation, prosecution, conviction and subsequent acquittal of Pauline Hanson and David Ettridge.

• That such Inquiry consider the comments of Chief Justice de Jersey that the lack of senior prosecutors overseeing the case may have contributed to the failure to properly consider the merits of the case against Hanson and Ettridge.

• That such Inquiry consider systemic historical funding issues for the DPP and the appropriateness of the State Government’s response to these issues and their impact on the proper functioning of that office and the Queensland Justice System.

• That such Inquiry consider other systemic issues relevant to the effective, efficient and fair operations of Queensland’s Justice System including the operation of the courts.

• That the CMC reports to the Parliament its findings and recommendations to enhance the effective operation of the Queensland Justice System.

5 MR ROWELL gave notice that he will move – That this House condemns the Beattie Government for introducing regulations to the Fisheries Act that will have a profound effect on the fishing industry without the provision of compensation.

6 MR WELLINGTON gave notice that he will move—

That this House resolves to recommend to the 51st Parliament that it investigate providing financial assistance to the State School chaplaincy committees.

Further, it is recommended that the 51st Parliament’s investigation includes investigating funding options between school committees and the State government (for example, school community two thirds, State one third).

Further, that the current Nambour-Burnside school chaplaincy service offered by Scripture Union Queensland be a model to be considered.
