With reference to the Forster Report which identified persistent and unacceptable health inequities facing Indigenous Queenslanders and reported that Queensland Health should increase investment in Indigenous Health Services—

Reportedly separately, what results have been achieved to date (a) to review paternalistic approaches to services such as birthing, (b) which additional paternalistic approaches have been identified and how will they be altered, (c) to prioritise essential services in areas of great health inequity and identify the inequities, (d) to identify other providers to ensure best practice for Indigenous communities in both urban and remote settings and (e) how much additional funding will be provided by Queensland Health from the mini-budget to increase investment in Indigenous Health Services?

28 MR MESSENGER ASKED THE MINISTER FOR HEALTH (MR ROBERTSON)—

With reference to the 235 university places at Griffith University to be funded by the Queensland Government and the proposal to bond those doctors to public hospitals in rural and regional Queensland—

Has a partnership been drawn up with Griffith University to include a number of Indigenous medical students according to recommendation 7.15 of the Forster Review Report, which sought to increase the number and retention into health professional education and training of Indigenous students?
29 MR ROWELL ASKED THE MINISTER FOR HEALTH (MR ROBERTSON)—
With reference to the Queensland Nurses Union which, in 2002, formally advised the Australian Industrial Relations Commission that Queensland Health should not go above a 1:4 nurse to patient ratio—

(1) Since 2002, and for each year to date (reported separately), has Queensland Health honoured that agreement and has the 1:4 nurse to patient ratio been met by Queensland Health?

(2) For each year to date (reported separately), what has been the nurse to patient ratio at each public hospital (reported separately); and how many times and at which public hospitals (reported separately) has the 1:4 nurse to patient ratio been breached?

30 MR MALONE ASKED THE MINISTER FOR HEALTH (MR ROBERTSON)—
With reference to the Report of the Review of Maternity Services in Queensland conducted by Dr Cherrell Hirst which revealed that 36 of the 84 maternity services in the public sector that were providing maternity care in 1995 were now closed and since the report was delivered in March 2005 further maternity services including Miles, Springsure and Emerald have been shut down—

Will he detail the location of each maternity service (reported separately) that (a) has been shut down since 1995, (b) the maternity services that have closed in the past 12 months and (c) outline the public hospitals at which maternity services are still being provided by Queensland Health?

31 MRS E CUNNINGHAM ASKED THE MINISTER FOR HEALTH (MR ROBERTSON)—
With reference to the Gladstone Base Hospital—

(1) Is Accident and Emergency adequately staffed to ensure an appropriate level of service for our community 24 hours a day; if not, what staff deficiencies exist?

(2) What staff levels exist for HDU and each ward area?

32 MRS PRATT ASKED THE MINISTER FOR POLICE AND CORRECTIVE SERVICES (MS SPENCE)—

(1) How many people were apprehended, charged, prosecuted and convicted of deliberately lighting bush fires in the Nanango Electorate and Queensland in each year from 2000 to, and including, 2005?

(2) In the same period for the Nanango Electorate and Queensland (a) how many received a recorded conviction and no conviction recorded and/or prison term, (b) how many were recidivist offenders, (c) what was the highest/total fines imposed and (d) what was the term of imprisonment, shortest/longest/ imposed?

(1) On what grounds will compensation be paid to (a) residents and home owners adjoining and in the vicinity of the busway for their loss of quality of life, (b) residents and home owners for the detrimental effects the busway pollution will have on their health, (c) property owners adjoining and in the vicinity of the busway for the dramatic devaluation of their properties and (d) business owners for their financial losses resulting from the busway?

(2) When will communication be undertaken with residents, home owners, property owners and business owners on and adjoining the busway route to inform them of these grounds for compensation?

(3) Will compensation be payable from the date the busway was announced considering that the property prices have already been affected by its planning?

35 MR FOLEY ASKED THE DEPUTY PREMIER, TREASURER AND MINISTER FOR STATE DEVELOPMENT, TRADE AND INNOVATION (MS BLIGH)—

With reference to concerns that maxi taxis and courtesy buses pay around one quarter of the compulsory third party premium compared to a regular class 3 taxi and as maxi taxis already receive a higher flag fall than regular taxis (if they are carrying more than 5 passengers)—

Will she consider standardising compulsory third party across the board for all taxi vehicles or base the compulsory third party on the average claims history for an area, as regional areas have a much lower claim incidence than capital cities?

36 MR KNUTH ASKED THE MINISTER FOR HEALTH (MR ROBERTSON)—

With reference to his response to Question on Notice No. 879 asked on 29 May 2003 in which, as the then Minister for Natural Resources and Minister for Mines, he provided details relating to legal costs incurred by his department—

As he set a precedent as the then Minister, will he disregard his response to Question on Notice No. 757 asked on 24 May 2005 and now provide details of all costs incurred by Queensland Health in relation to litigation costs, for the calendar years 2004, 2005 and the year to date (reported separately) (a) broken down by each legal matter (reported separately), (b) any and all mediation activities, (c) any and all non-litigious disputes and (d) any and all litigation in which Queensland Health was a party?

37 MR SEENEY ASKED THE MINISTER FOR HEALTH (MR ROBERTSON)—

With reference to his answer to Question on Notice No. 1836, asked on 10 November 2005, in which he claimed Queensland Health does not centrally collect data on the number of surgical procedures rescheduled or cancelled and data is not available on the number of surgical procedures rescheduled or cancelled due to the unavailability of beds, surgical or nursing staff and as he has now had over three months in which to find this information, as the Minister responsible for health—

(1) Will he meet his responsibilities and provide the requested details in relation to surgical procedures in relation to each reporting hospital (reported separately) for each of the last two financial years and for the year to date (reported separately) (a) how many surgical procedures have been rescheduled or cancelled, (b) how many surgical procedures have been rescheduled or cancelled due to the unavailability of surgical or nursing staff and (c) how many surgical procedures have been rescheduled or cancelled due to the unavailability of beds?

(2) Should he attempt to claim that this information is not available because it is not held by central office, will he outline how it can be accessed?
