WELCOME TO PARLIAMENT HOUSE

Located opposite Brisbane's lush botanical gardens, Queensland Parliament is a venue unlike any other.

Steeped in old world charm, the historic building boasts beautiful views of the Brisbane River, 19th century French Renaissance architecture and a suite of function spaces to suit any occasion.

Once an exclusive destination for members of Parliament and dignitaries, Queensland Parliament is proud to open it's doors to the public and invites you to enjoy the stunning features this heritage building has to offer.

CELLAR

The Cellar is our most intimate and private function room. Traditionally used to store boutique wines, the cellar was recently updated to offer an exclusive dining experience. It is ideal for small meetings, private lunches, dinners, or small networking receptions.

Did you know?

The cellar has been a feature in Parliament House since its construction in 1882. Originally used for the storage of provisions, two of the three access hatches still survive. Today the cellar is fitted with a bar and dining space.
