--	---------------------------------	---------------------------------------

The Index from each volume of Hansard corresponds with a Parliamentary Session.*

This document contains a list of page numbers of the daily proceedings for the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly as printed in the corresponding Hansard volume.

A list of page numbers at the start of each printed index is provided to allow the reader to find the electronic copy in the online calendar by clicking on the date of the proceedings and then to a link to the pdf.

Therefore the table of page numbers and dates of proceedings allows the pagination in each Index to be matched with the date and the particular Legislative Chamber.

Rulings by Mr. Speaker—

Address in Reply—

An hon. member, having resumed his seat, and no other hon. member having risen, the hon. member is in order in continuing, if necessary, 136.

An hon. member who moves the adjournment of the debate after having risen to speak, cannot speak again except by permission of the House, 234.

Repetition of what has been declared by an hon. member to be a misstatement is out of order, 380.

An hon. member called upon to withdraw a statement may not make a condition as to the terms on which he will withdraw, 1081.

An hon. member in making a personal explanation must not introduce new matter, 317.

Disorderly—

To address an hon. member by name, 93.

To call an hon. member a "Jack in the Box," 1105.

To call an hon. member "An Insignificant Worm," 390.

To impute motives, 119, 1104.

Income Tax Act Amendment Bill—

An amendment (Mr. Paull's) to an instruction to the Committee can only be moved after formal notice has been given, 1354.

An hon. member may only address the House once on any question, 1379.

At report stage an hon. member may not move a distinct negative on the question that the Bill be now taken into consideration, 1379.

At report stage an hon. member may move any number of amendments, provided they are different and relevant, 1379.

The Chairman of Committees having ruled an amendment (Hon. R. Philp's) out of order, following the local and House of Commons practice there is no course open to the Speaker but not to review that ruling, 1379.

Interjections are not always out of order, but they are out of order if the hon. member who is speaking objects to them, 138, 1392.

Jimbour Estate (Motion for Adjournment)—If not less than five members rise in their places in support of a motion for adjournment, the Speaker calls upon the hon. member who has given notice to proceed with the motion, 1071.

Land Court and Repurchased Estates—

A proposed amendment of an amendment having been objected to, is out of order, and cannot be put, 1559.

An hon. member is not in order in making a definite statement that the proposed Select Committee would be blassed from the start, 1562.

In proposing to amend a motion for the appointment of a Select Committee by the substitution of one name for another, a blank must first be created, 1560.

Hon. J. T. Bell's amendment on Mr. Stodart's motion not relevant, and therefore out of order, 1555.

Hon. J. T. Bell's amendment previously ruled out of order could be moved as an instruction to Select Committee after notice, 1555.

Hon. T. O'Sullivan's amendment out of order, because Standing Order 186 provides that a motion for the appointment of a Select Committee shall specify the names of the members proposed, the mover being one, 1558, 1559.

In the appointment of a Select Committee, when it is proposed to substitute one name for another, a blank having been created, the proper procedure is to negative the proposed insertion of one name before moving the insertion of another, 1561.

Local Authorities Act Amendment Bill—

Hon. R. Philp's proposed instruction to the Committee, giving power to insert provisions for a method of distribution amongst local authorities of any sum hereafter voted by Parliament by way of endowment is in order, because Standing Order 179 empowers a Committee of the whole House to consider matters not already referred to it, 1095.

Not in order to discuss the question of endowment to local authorities on a proposed instruction to the Committee to insert provisions for a method of distribution amongst local authorities of any sum voted by Parliament by way of endowment, 1096, 1099, 1103, 1105.

On the second reading of a Bill a member is not in order in discussing details, 763, 783.

Members must confine themselves to the question before the House, 1192, 1194, 1195, 1260, 1266, 1356, 1357, 1554, 1559, 1560, 1561, 1562, 1737, 1761, 1762.

Ministerial Crisis—

An hon. member is not in order in making a personal allusion to His Excellency the Governor, 1761.

An hon. member is not in order in saying that His Excellency the Governor committed an error in accepting the advice of his responsible advisers, 1761.

An hon. member may not reflect on the representative of His Majesty even by metaphor, 1763.

An hon. member would be in order in conveying to the House in his own words the contents of a newspaper article, but not in reading the article itself, 1775.

Announces reply of the Governor to address presented by the House, 1783.

Disrespectful reference to His Excellency the Governor entirely out of order, 1756.

If an hon. member stated that the Premier tendered advice to His Excellency the Governor which was absolutely untrue, it would be out of order, 1763.

Members addressing the Chamber are entitled to be heard without interruption, 1770, 1771, 1773.

Ministerial Statement (resignation of the Government)—A member may not discuss a motion of which notice has been given for the following day, 1740.

On two hon. members rising together, only one of whom addresses the Chair, the Speaker calls upon the hon. member who addresses him, 1100.

Reference to a statement made by a member outside the Chamber is not of the same nature as a reference made to the statement of a member in his capacity of a member, 1081.

Religious Instruction in State Schools Referendum Bill (Mr. Kenna's point of order)—A point of order challenging the vote of a member on motion for introduction of a Bill cannot be raised after the Chairman has reported that the Committee have come to a resolution, 572.

Supply (Motion to go into Committee)—Disrespectful reference to members of another Legislature would be out of order, 747.

Wages Boards Bill (3rd)—

Not out of order for the Premier to criticise in general terms the effect action of the Opposition is likely to have on Upper House, 708.

Under the Standing Orders an hon. member is not out of order in speaking a second time if he confines himself strictly to an explanation of a portion of the speech he has already delivered, and does not introduce new matter, 716.

Rulings by Chairman of Committees—

An hon. member is out of order in applying the word "unscrupulous" to any other hon. member, 1745.

An hon. member wishing to speak on a question before the Committee must rise in his place, and call on the Chairman by name, 1168.

Elections Acts Amendment Bill—

A clause that has been ruled out of order cannot be discussed, 590.

A member may not discuss the main question on an amendment, 564.

A ruling can only be discussed when a motion is moved to disagree with it, 590.

Amendment of Mr. Creagh not relevant to the subject matter of the Bill, and therefore not in order, 589.

Charters Towers Election being sub judice should not be referred to, 524.

On proposed repeal of postal-ballot clauses of the Act, not in order to discuss conduct of parties during the last general election, 517.

Quotations from current Hansard in order if they refer to subject under discussion, 568.

Factories and Shops Act Amendment Bill—

Amendment proposed by Mr. Swayne limiting the weight of any goods or package containing goods to 160 lb. is not relevant to the subject matter of the Bill, 1237.

Imputation of motives out of order, 1170, 1551, 1566, 1718, 1726.

Income Tax Act Amendment Bill—

Amendment proposed by Hon. R. Philp exempting the income of mutual life insurance companies, is not relevant to the subject matter of the Bill, 1377.

Amendment proposed by Hon. R. Philp exempting the sum of £20 in respect of the maintenance and support of each child under the age of sixteen years, and a sum equal to the value of the labour of any child or other relative, is not relevant to the subject matter of the Bill, 1377.

Amendment proposed by Mr. Paget exempting such sums as may be expended in the purchase of agricultural implements or harness or in the clearing of land for the purposes of cultivation is not relevant to the subject matter of the Bill, 1377.

Rulings by Chairman of Committees—continued:Income Tax Act Amendment Bill—continued:

Amendment proposed by Mr. Ryland providing that in the case of income from land alienated from the Crown the taxable income shall be deemed to be ten per centum of the unimproved value of such land is not relevant to the Bill, 1371.

Interruption from outside the bar of the House is disorderly, 1745.

Local Authorities Act Amendment Bill—

An amendment cannot be amended without the consent of the Committee, 1134.

Amendment proposed by Mr. Ryland "That no ratepayer shall be entitled to have more than one vote in any area" is not relevant to the subject matter of the Bill, 1169.

Not in order to discuss the Trades Disputes Bill on this Bill, 544.

Members must confine themselves to the question before the Committee, 555, 564, 565, 572, 578, 592, 679, 680, 682, 687, 811, 874, 937, 1139, 1149, 1170, 1227, 1282, 1297, 1363, 1364, 1367, 1368, 1369, 1374, 1375, 1376, 1406, 1412, 1417, 1458, 1460, 1461, 1463, 1464, 1471, 1472, 1475, 1476, 1480, 1567, 1571, 1575, 1596, 1600, 1612, 1635, 1638, 1645, 1720, 1729.

Personal or offensive reflections on members of the Legislative Council out of order, 1161, 1162, 1474, 1752.

Personal reflections on other members are out of order, 523, 527, 555, 558, 589, 617, 924, 1144, 1166, 1198, 1281, 1366, 1423, 1567, 1568, 1577, 1728, 1750.

Printing of proposed amendments not compulsory, but a convenience to Chairman and hon. members, 674.

Religious Instruction in State Schools Referendum Bill—

A member voting with the "Noes" cannot call for a division when the question has been declared in the negative, 571.

Supply—Estimates-in-Chief—

Not relevant to discuss the principle of the Contagious Diseases Act under the vote for "Lock Hospitals," 1586.

Only matters of principle can be discussed on the first vote of a department, 1564.

Wages Boards Bill—

A member may not discuss a clause already passed by the Committee, 687.

Amendment proposed by Mr. Plunkett, "That the provisions of this section shall not apply to the farming or dairying industries," is in order, 685.

Expression "Black Soil Push" is scarcely parliamentary, and is not in good taste, 1475.

New clause proposed by Mr. Bowman providing that no employer shall dismiss any employee by reason of the fact that the employee is a member of an organisation is in order and relevant to the Bill, 674.

The Bill having been informally introduced, when the motion is carried that the Chairman leave the chair, the practice is for the Bill to drop off the paper, 97.

CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES [JACKSON, GEORGE, Esquire (Kennedy)]—

An hon. member is out of order in applying the word "unscrupulous" to any other hon. member, 1745.

An hon. member wishing to speak on a question before the Committee must rise in his place and call on the Chairman by name, 1168.

Elections Acts Amendment Bill—

A clause that has been ruled out of order cannot be discussed, 590.

A member may not discuss the main question on an amendment, 564.

Amendment of Mr. Creagh not relevant to the subject matter of the Bill and therefore not in order, 589.

A ruling can only be discussed when a motion is moved to disagree with it, 590.

Charters Towers Election being sub judice should not be referred to, 524.

On proposed repeal of postal-ballot clauses of the Act, not in order to discuss conduct of parties during the last general election, 517.

Quotations from current Standard in order if they are from the same debate, 568.

Factories and Shops Act Amendment Bill—

Amendment proposed by Mr. Swayne limiting the weight of any goods or package containing goods to 160 lb. is not relevant to the subject matter of the Bill, 1237.

Imputation of motives out of order, 1170, 1551, 1566, 1718, 1726.

Income Tax Act Amendment Bill—

Amendment proposed by Hon. R. Philp exempting the income of mutual life insurance companies is not relevant to the subject matter of the Bill, 1377.

Amendment proposed by Hon. R. Philp exempting the sum of £20 in respect of the maintenance and support of each child under the age of sixteen years, and a sum equal to the value of the labour of any child or other relative, is not relevant to the subject matter of the Bill, 1377.

Amendment proposed by Mr. Paget exempting such sums as may be expended in the purchase of agricultural implements or harness or in the clearing of land for the purposes of cultivation, is not relevant to the subject matter of the Bill, 1377.

Amendment proposed by Mr. Ryland providing that in the case of income from land alienated from the Crown the taxable income shall be deemed to be ten per centum of the unimproved value of such land is not relevant to the Bill, 1371.

Interruption from outside the bar of the House is disorderly, 1745.

Local Authorities Act Amendment Bill—

An amendment cannot be amended by the mover without the consent of the Committee, 1134.

Amendment proposed by Mr. Ryland, "That no ratepayer shall be entitled to have more than one vote in any area," is not relevant to the subject matter of the Bill, 1169.

Not in order to discuss the Trades Disputes Bill on this Bill, 544.

Members must confine themselves to the question before the Committee, 511, 517, 523, 527, 555, 564, 565, 572, 576, 592, 679, 680, 682, 687, 811, 874, 987, 1139, 1149, 1170, 1227, 1282, 1297, 1363, 1364, 1366, 1367, 1368, 1369, 1374, 1375, 1376, 1406, 1412, 1417, 1458, 1460, 1461, 1464, 1465, 1471, 1472, 1475, 1476, 1480, 1567, 1571, 1575, 1596, 1600, 1612, 1635, 1638, 1645, 1720, 1729.

Personal or offensive reflections on members of the Legislative Council out of order, 1161, 1162, 1474, 1752.

Personal reflections on other members are out of order, 523, 527, 555, 558, 569, 617, 924, 1144, 1166, 1198, 1281, 1366, 1423, 1567, 1568, 1577, 1728, 1750.

Religious Instruction in State Schools Referendum Bill—

A member voting with the "Noes" cannot call for a division when the question has been declared in the negative, 571.

Returns thanks on election, 34.

1907—b

SUPPLY :

Estimates-in-Chief—

Not relevant to discuss the principle of the Contagious Diseases Act under the vote for "Lock Hospitals," 1586.

Only matters of principle can be discussed on the first vote of a department, 1564.

Wages Boards Bill—

A member may not discuss a clause already passed by the Committee, 687.

Amendment proposed by Mr. Plunkett, "That the provisions of this section (48) shall not apply to the farming or dairying industries," is in order, 685.

Expression "Black Soil Push" is scarcely parliamentary, and is not in good taste, 1475.

New clause proposed by Mr. Bowman providing that no employer shall dismiss any employee by reason of the fact that the employee is a member of an organisation, is in order and relevant to the Bill, 674.

The Bill having been informally introduced, when the motion is carried that the Chairman leave chair, the practice is for the Bill to drop off the paper, 97.

SPEAKER [Honourable JOHN LEAHY, Esquire (Bulloo)—

Absence of the Clerk, 240.

Address in Reply—

An hon. member having resumed his seat, and no other hon. member having risen, the hon. member is in order in continuing, if necessary, 136.

An hon. member who moves the adjournment of the debate, after having risen to speak, cannot speak again except by permission of the House, 234.

Presentation of, 468.

Repetition of what has been declared by an hon. member to be a misstatement is out of order, 380.

An hon. member called upon to withdraw a statement may not make a condition as to the terms on which he will withdraw, 1081.

An hon. member in making a personal explanation must not introduce new matter, 317.

Commission to administer oath, 20.

Disorderly—

To address an hon. member by name, 93.

To call an hon. member a "Jack in the box," 1105.

To call an hon. member "an insignificant worm," 390.

To impute motives, 119, 1104.

Election, 2, 8.

Election approved by Governor, 20.

Income Tax Act Amendment Bill—

An amendment (Mr. Paull's) to an instruction to the Committee can only be moved after formal notice has been given, 1354.

An hon. member may only address the House once on any question, 1379.

At report stage an hon. member may not move a distinct negative on the question "That the Bill be now taken into consideration," 1379.

At report stage an hon. member may move any number of amendments, provided they are different and relevant, 1379.

The Chairman of Committees having ruled an amendment (Hon. R. Philp's) out of order, following the local and House of Commons practice, there is no course open to the Speaker but not to review that ruling, 1379.

Interjections are not always out of order, but they are out of order if the hon. member who is speaking objects to them, 138, 1392.

Jimbour Estate (motion for adjournment)—If not less than five members rise in their places in support of a motion for adjournment, the Speaker calls upon the hon. member who has given notice to proceed with the motion, 1071.

SPEAKER [Honourable JOHN LEAHY, Esquire (Bulloo)]—continued:

Land Court and Repurchased Estates—

A proposed amendment of an amendment, having been objected to, is out of order, and cannot be put, 1559.

An hon. member is not in order in making a definite statement that a proposed Select Committee would be biased from the start, 1562.

In proposing to amend a motion for the appointment of a Select Committee by the substitution of one name for another, a blank must first be created, 1560.

Hon. J. T. Bell's amendment on Mr. Stodart's motion not relevant, and therefore out of order, 1555.

Hon. J. T. Bell's amendment, previously ruled out of order, could be moved as an instruction to Select Committee after notice, 1555.

Hon. T. O'Sullivan's amendment out of order, because Standing Order 186 provides that a motion for the appointment of a Select Committee shall specify the names of the members proposed, the mover being one, 1558, 1559.

In the appointment of a Select Committee, when it is proposed to substitute one name for another, a blank having been created, the proper procedure is to negative the proposed insertion of one name before moving the insertion of another, 1561.

Local Authorities Act Amendment Bill—

Hon. R. Philp's proposed instruction to the Committee, giving power to insert provisions for a method of distribution amongst local authorities of any sum hereafter voted by Parliament by way of endowment is in order, because Standing Order 179 empowers a Committee of the whole House to consider matters not already referred to it, 1095.

Not in order to discuss the question of endowment to local authorities on a proposed instruction to the Committee to insert provisions for a method of distribution amongst local authorities of any sum voted by Parliament by way of endowment, 1096, 1099, 1103, 1105.

On the second reading of a Bill a member is not in order in discussing details, 763, 793.

Members must confine themselves to the question before the House, 1192, 1194, 1195, 1260, 1266, 1356, 1357, 1554, 1559, 1560, 1561, 1562, 1737, 1761, 1762.

Ministerial Crisis—

An hon. member is not in order in making a personal allusion to His Excellency the Governor, 1761.

An hon. member is not in order in saying that His Excellency the Governor committed an error in accepting the advice of his responsible advisers, 1761.

An hon. member may not reflect on the representative of His Majesty, even by metaphor, 1763.

An hon. member would be in order in conveying to the House in his own words the contents of a newspaper article, but not in order in reading the article itself, 1775.

Announces reply of the Governor to Address presented by the House, 1783.

Disrespectful reference to His Excellency the Governor entirely out of order, 1756.

If an hon. member stated that the Premier tendered advice to His Excellency the Governor which was absolutely untrue, it would be out of order, 1763.

Ministerial Crisis—continued:

Members addressing the Chamber are entitled to be heard without interruption, 1770, 1771, 1773.

Ministerial Statement (resignation of the Government)—A member may not discuss a motion of which notice has been given for the following day, 1740.

On two hon. members rising together, only one of whom addresses the Chair, the Speaker calls upon the hon. member who addresses him, 1100.

Personal Explanation, 1487, 1488.

Presentation to Governor, 20.

Reference to a statement made by a member outside the Chamber is not of the same nature as a reference made to the statement of a member in his capacity as a member, 1081.

Religious Instruction in State Schools Referendum Bill (Mr. Kenna's point of order)—A point of order challenging the vote of a member on motion for introduction of a Bill cannot be raised after the Chairman has reported that the Committee have come to a resolution, 572.

Returns Thanks on Election, 10.

Supply (motion to go into Committee)—Disrespectful reference to members of another Legislature would be out of order, 747.

Thanks the House for kindness and courtesy extended to him, 1790.

Wages Boards Bill (3^d)—

Not out of order for the Premier to criticise in general terms the effect action of the Opposition is likely to have on Upper House, 706.

Under the Standing Orders, an hon. member is not out of order in speaking a second time, if he confines himself strictly to an explanation of a portion of the speech he has already delivered, and does not introduce new matter, 716.

Warrego Election—

Announces Receipt of Petition, 855.

Announces receipt of letter from Elections Judge, intimating that the respondent does not intend to oppose the Petition, 810.
