REVENUE LAWS AMENDMENT BILL

Hon. D. J. HAMILL (Ipswich—ALP) (Treasurer) (12.40 p.m.), in reply: I thank the honourable member for Moggill for his support for the amendments before the House. I trust this may well be the last time we have occasion to amend the Stamp Act of 1894 or 1896, whatever it is.

An honourable member: Don't bet on it.

Mr HAMILL: I acknowledge the comment. I was hoping that the next time we amend it will be to actually remove it and put in place our proposed new duties legislation.

Dr WATSON: 100 years' evolution.

Mr HAMILL: That is right, but it is looking a bit like that committee that tried to design something and came up with a camel. I thank the honourable member for his support for the Bill and I commend it to the House.
