Debate of Parliamentary committee reports

2.(1) On tabling a committee report or, where a committee report is tabled when the House is not sitting, on the next sitting day, the member tabling the report may give notice of motion that the House take note of the report.

- (2) Debate of motions that the House take note of committee reports may be moved and debated without amendment on each Thursday following Tabling of Reports in the order in which the notice of motion was given.
- (3) A debate of a motion in (2) not completed may be adjourned to the following Thursday.
- (4) A motion in (2) cannot be amended.

Private Members' Bills

- 3.(1) A member who is not a Minister may introduce a Bill during time set aside in the Order of Business for Private Members' Statements. In such a case the Member introducing the Bill may either:
  - (a) speak on the Bill for the time allotted each member (two minutes) and then incorporate the remainder of their second reading speech, so long as the speech has been shown to the Speaker in accordance with Standing Order 25(2); or
  - (b) speak for a maximum of 15 minutes, in which case any time spoken in excess of the time normally allotted (two minutes) shall:
    - in the case of a non-Government Member, be deducted from the time normally allocated to non-Government Members in the total time allocated for Private Members' Statements; or
    - in the case of a Government Member, be deducted from the time normally allocated to Government Members in the total time allocated for Private Members' Statements;
  - (c) speak for any time remaining for:
    - in the case of a non-Government Member, the time normally allocated to non-Government Members in the total time allocated for Private Members' Statements; or
    - in the case of a Government Member, the time normally allocated to Government Members in the total time allocated for Private Members' Statements.
- (2) If a Bill introduced by a member who is not a Minister has laid upon the Table of the House for a period exceeding ninety days and has not passed all stages, that Bill will be brought on for debate on the following sitting Wednesday evening.
- (3) The House will continue to debate the Bill on each following sitting Wednesday evening until consideration of that Bill has been finalised.

Condolence Motions

- 4.(1) A motion of condolence may be moved as the first item of business after Speaker's Statements in the Order of Business.
- (2) If a motion of condolence is moved in accordance with (1), the debate on such motion will last no more than one hour, after which time the question shall be put.
- (3) After a motion of condolence is moved, debated and resolved in accordance with (1) and (2), the Order of Business for the day shall then resume, with Question Time commencing one hour after the motion of condolence was resolved and with starting times for all other items, except lunch and dinner breaks, in the Order of Business adjusting accordingly.
