MINISTERIAL STATEMENT

Forensic and Scientific Services, Review

 Hon. YM D'ATH (Redcliffe—ALP) (Minister for Health and Ambulance Services) (10.04 am): During the last setting week I announced a review of Forensic and Scientific Services and I now update the House on this matter. I can advise the House that the terms of reference for this review have been finalised and I now table them. I know they are eagerly anticipated by those opposite.

Tabled paper: Terms of reference titled 'Summary of FSS Systems and Processes Review' 614.

The terms of reference have been prepared in consultation with the Queensland Police Service and the Crime and Corruption Commission. The highly specialised set of skills required for this review means there is a limited national pool of potential reviewers. We are going through the process of appointing a reviewer, including undertaking normal due diligence. I will continue to update the House on this review as it is progressed.
