- 68A Varying interim prohibition order on health ombudsman's own initiative
- (1) This section applies if, at any time after a decision to issue an interim prohibition order to a health practitioner, there is a material change in relation to the matter giving rise to the issue of the interim prohibition order.
 - (2) The health ombudsman may vary an interim prohibition order only if—

[s 70]

- (a) the health ombudsman reasonably believes the material change justifies varying the decision made; and
- (b) the variation is on the grounds mentioned in section 68.

Example of varying interim prohibition order—

The health ombudsman varies an interim prohibition order prohibiting the person from providing a health service to persons under the age of 18, to an interim prohibition order prohibiting the person from providing any health service in a clinical or non-clinical capacity.

- (3) If the health ombudsman makes a decision (the variation decision) to vary the interim prohibition order, sections 69 to 76, 78, 79, 94 and 279 apply to the variation decision as if it were, to the extent of the variation, a decision to issue an interim prohibition order.

68B Varying interim prohibition order on application by health practitioner

- (1) A health practitioner may apply to the health ombudsman to vary an interim prohibition order if there is a material change in relation to the matter giving rise to the issue of the interim prohibition order.

- (b) is limited to the grounds mentioned in section 68. 1
2
- (4) The health ombudsman must decide to do 1 of the following— 3
4
- (a) vary the interim prohibition order in the way requested in the application; 5 6
- (b) vary the interim prohibition order in a way that is different to that requested in the application; 7

20
- (6) If the health ombudsman proposes to vary the interim prohibition order in a way that is different to that requested in the application, sections 69(1) to (3), 70, 71, 73 to 76, 78, 79, 94 and 279 apply to the variation decision as if it were, to the extent of the variation, a decision to issue an interim prohibition order. 21
