A Bill

for

An Act to protect the health, safety and welfare of persons affected by the COVID-19 emergency, to facilitate the continuance of public administration, judicial process, small business and other activities disrupted by the COVID-19 emergency, including by easing regulatory requirements and establishing an office of small business commissioner, to provide for matters related to residential, retail and prescribed leases affected by the COVID-19 emergency and to support the Queensland rental sector during the COVID-19 emergency period and to amend the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, the Parliament of Queensland Act 2001 and the Statutory Instruments Act 1992 for particular purposes

[s 1]

The Parliament of Queensland enacts— 1

Part 1 Preliminary 2

1 Short title 3

This Act may be cited as the COVID-19 Emergency Response Act 2020. 4
5

2 Main purposes 6

The main purposes of this Act are— 7

- (a) to protect the health, safety and welfare of persons 8
affected by the COVID-19 emergency; and 9
- (b) to facilitate the continuance of public administration, 10 judicial process, small business and other activities 11 disrupted by the COVID-19 emergency, including by 12
easing regulatory requirements and establishing an 13
office of small business commissioner; and 14
- (c) to provide for matters related to residential, retail and 15
prescribed leases affected by the COVID-19 emergency; 16
and 17
- (d) to support the Queensland rental sector during the 18
COVID-19 emergency period. 19

3 Definitions 20

The dictionary in schedule 1 defines particular words used in 21
this Act. 22

4 Application of Act 23

- (1) This Act applies despite any other Act or law other than the 24
Human Rights Act 2019. 25

- (2) A reference in section 5(5) or 6(3) to being inconsistent with an Act does not include a reference to being inconsistent with the Human Rights Act 2019. 1

Part 2 Powers to make regulations and instruments 4 5

5 Extraordinary regulations 6

- (1) Each of the following provisions is an additional regulation-making provision— 7 8
- section 8 9
 - section 9 10
 - section 13 11
 - section 15(3)(a) 12
 - section 17. 13
- (2) An Act to which an additional regulation-making provision applies is an affected Act. 14
15
- (3) A regulation made under an affected Act in reliance on an additional regulation-making provision is an extraordinary regulation. 16
17
18
- (4) The Minister administering an affected Act may recommend to the Governor in Council the making of an extraordinary regulation under the Act only if the Minister is satisfied the regulation is necessary for a purpose of this Act. 19 20
21
22
- (5) An extraordinary regulation under an affected Act may be inconsistent with the affected Act, and any other Act, to the extent necessary to achieve a purpose of this Act. 23
24
25
- (6) Without limiting subsection (5), to the extent a person's act or omission complies with an extraordinary regulation made under an affected Act, the person does not incur civil or criminal liability under the affected Act for the act or omission. 26
27
28
29
30

[s 6]

- (7) An extraordinary regulation must declare it is made under the relevant additional regulation-making provision. 1
- (8) An additional regulation-making provision does not limit any other regulation-making power conferred under an affected Act. 3
5
- (9) The Statutory Instruments Act 1992, section 49(1) applies to the tabling of an extraordinary regulation as if the reference to 14 sitting days were a reference to 14 days. 6
8
- 6 Statutory instruments under s 12 9
- (1) An Act to which section 12 applies is an affected Act. 10
- (2) An entity may make a statutory instrument under an affected Act in reliance on section 12(3)(a) only if satisfied the instrument is necessary for a purpose of this Act. 11
13
- (3) The statutory instrument may be inconsistent with the affected Act, and any other Act, to the extent necessary to achieve a purpose of this Act. 14
15
16
- (4) Without limiting subsection (3), to the extent a person's act or omission complies with the statutory instrument, the person does not incur civil or criminal liability under the affected Act for the act or omission. 17
18
19
20
- (5) The statutory instrument must declare it is made under section 12(3)(a). 21
22
- (6) The Statutory Instruments Act 1992, sections 49, 50 and 51 apply to the statutory instrument as if the instrument were subordinate legislation. 23
24
25
- (7) However, despite the Statutory Instruments Act 1992, section 49(1), the statutory instrument must be tabled in the Legislative Assembly within 14 days after the instrument is published on a relevant website under section 12(7). 26
27
28
29
- (8) To remove any doubt, it is declared that a provision mentioned in the notes to the Statutory Instruments Act 1992, section 49(1) does not apply to the statutory instrument. 30

- (f) give reasons for a decision. 25
- (2) The period may be modified on the ground the modification is necessary for a purpose of this Act. 26
27
- (3) The power to modify the period under subsection (2) may be exercised— 28
29

- (a) if the modification applies generally or to particular classes of persons or matters—by a regulation made under the Act providing for the period; or
- (b) if the modification applies in relation to a particular proceeding—by a court having jurisdiction relating to the proceeding giving each party to the proceeding a notice stating the modification and the reasons for the modification.
- (4) If a regulation under subsection (3)(a) extends a period, the period may be extended only for a period that ends on or before 31 December 2020.
- (5) The power to modify the period under subsection (2) may be exercised under subsection (3)(b) on the court’s own initiative or on the application of a party to the proceeding.
- (6) A regulation made under subsection (3)(a) may have retrospective operation to a day not earlier than 19 March 2020.
- (7) This section does not limit any other power of the court to modify a period, including, for example, a power under the Supreme Court of Queensland Act 1991.
- (8) To remove any doubt, it is declared that this section applies in relation to the following provisions—
- (a) the Criminal Code, sections 590 and 671;
- (b) the Dangerous Prisoners (Sexual Offenders) Act 2003, part 4;
- (c) the Justices Act 1886, section 222;
- (d) the Limitation of Actions Act 1974, parts 2 and 3.
- (9) A reference in this section to a period within which an entity is authorised or required to do a thing relating to a proceeding includes a reference to any expression of time provided for under a provision for doing the thing.
- Examples of an expression of time in a provision—*
- a provision requiring a person to do a thing immediately
 - a provision requiring a person to do a thing promptly

[s 16]

(10)	In this section—	1
	court includes—	2
(a)	a tribunal; and	3
(b)	an entity having a judicial or quasi-judicial function.	4
16	Regulation-making power for particular matters relating to proceedings	5 6
(1)	A regulation under this Act may make provision for any of the following matters in relation to proceedings before a relevant entity—	7 8 9
(a)	alternative processes or methods for making, signing, filing, giving or verifying documents;	10 11
(b)	alternative methods for presenting indictments;	12
(c)	the use of audio visual links or audio links to enable persons—	13 14
(i)	to appear before a relevant entity; or	15
(ii)	to give evidence or make submissions; or	16
(iii)	to take an oath or make an affirmation;	17
(d)	the restriction of access to the proceedings by members of the public.	18 19
(2)	If a regulation is made under subsection (1)(c)(i) in relation to a proceeding, a person who appears before the relevant entity for the proceeding as provided under the regulation is taken to be present before the relevant entity.	20 21 22 23
(3)	A regulation made under subsection (1) is taken to be an extraordinary regulation.	24 25
(4)	For subsection (3)—	26
(a)	subsection (1) is taken to be an additional regulation-making provision within the meaning of section 5(1); and	27 28 29

- (b) a reference in section 5 to an extraordinary regulation under an affected Act is taken to be a reference to a regulation made under subsection (1); and
- (c) section 5(4) applies as if the reference in the section to the Minister administering an affected Act were a reference to the Minister administering this Act; and
- (d) section 5(5), (6) and (8) applies as if a reference in the section to an affected Act, other than a reference to an extraordinary regulation under an affected Act, were a reference to the enabling Act for a proceeding before a relevant entity in relation to which a regulation made under subsection (1) applies.
- (5) In this section—
- audio link* see the Evidence Act 1977, section 39C.
- audio visual link* see the Evidence Act 1977, schedule 3.
- verify*, in relation to a document, includes—
- (a) witness another person’s signature of the document; and
- (b) certify a copy of the document; and
- (c) make a statutory declaration in relation to the document; and
- (d) take an oath or make an affirmation in relation to the document.
- 17 Regulation-making powers under enabling Acts
- (1) The enabling Act for a proceeding before a relevant entity is taken to include a power to make a regulation that makes provision for any of the following matters in relation to the proceeding—
- (a) a matter mentioned in section 16(1)(a), (b), (c) or (d);
- (b) alternative provisions about the constitution of the relevant entity for conducting the proceeding;

[s 18]

- (c) provision for an alternative method of service to satisfy a requirement about personal service of a document in the proceeding; 1
3
 - (d) provision for a videorecording of a witness's evidence to be viewed and heard in the proceeding instead of direct testimony; 4
6
 - (e) provision for the proceeding to be conducted in an alternative location; 7 8
 - (f) other procedural arrangements in relation to the proceeding. 9
10
- (2) A regulation under the enabling Act providing for a matter mentioned in subsection (1)(a) may have retrospective application to a day not earlier than 19 March 2020. 11
12
13
- (3) If there is an inconsistency between a regulation under section 16 and a regulation under the enabling Act mentioned in subsection (1), the regulation under the enabling Act prevails to the extent of the inconsistency. 14
15
17
- 18 Relationship with pts 3 and 4 18
- This part does not limit the application of a provision in part 3 or 4, other than section 12(3)(a), in relation to a proceeding before a relevant entity. 19 20
21

Part 6 Small business commissioner 22

- 19 Appointment of commissioner 23
- (1) There is to be a small business commissioner. 24
 - (2) The commissioner is appointed by the Governor in Council on the recommendation of the Minister (small business). 25
26
 - (3) The Minister (small business) may recommend a person for appointment only if the Minister is satisfied the person is appropriately qualified. 27
28
29

- (4) The commissioner is to be paid the remuneration and allowances decided by the Governor in Council. 1 2
- (5) A person holds office as the small business commissioner on the conditions decided by the Governor in Council. 3
- (6) The commissioner must be appointed under this Act and not the Public Service Act 2008. 5
- (7) The appointment ends on 31 December 2020. 7

20 Functions and powers of commissioner 8

- (1) The functions of the commissioner are— 9
- (a) to provide information and advisory services to the public about matters relevant to small businesses, particularly in relation to the COVID-19 response measures; and 10
12
13
- (b) to assist small businesses in reaching an informal resolution for disputes relating to small business leases; and 14
15
16
- (c) to administer a mediation process prescribed by regulation under section 23(1)(g) in relation to small business tenancy disputes. 17
18
19
- (2) The commissioner has all the powers necessary for performing the commissioner’s functions. 20 21
- (3) In this section— 22
- small business lease* means a lease of premises used wholly or predominantly for carrying on a small business. 23 24
- small business tenancy dispute* means a dispute about a small business lease, or about the use or occupation of the leased premises, regardless of when the lease was entered into. 25
26
27

21 Preservation of rights of commissioner 28

- (1) This section applies if a person who is a public service officer is appointed as commissioner. 29 30

[s 22]

- (2) The person keeps all rights accrued or accruing to the person as a public service officer as if service as the commissioner were a continuation of service as a public service officer. 1
- (3) At the end of the person's term of office or resignation as commissioner, the person's service as the commissioner is taken to be service of a like nature in the public service for deciding the person's rights as a public service officer. 4

23 Regulation-making power for retail leases and other prescribed leases 19
20

- (1) A regulation under this Act or the Retail Shop Leases Act 1994 may, for responding to the COVID-19 emergency— 21
22
- (a) prohibit the recovery of possession of premises under a relevant lease by a lessor of the premises from a lessee of the premises; or 23
24
25
- (b) prohibit the termination of a relevant lease by a lessor or owner of premises; or 26
27
- (c) regulate or prevent the exercise or enforcement of another right of a lessor of premises under a relevant lease or other agreement relating to the premises; or 28
29
30

- (d) exempt a lessee, or a class of lessees, from the operation of a provision of an Act, relevant lease or other agreement relating to the leasing of premises; or
- (e) require parties to a relevant lease to have regard to particular matters or principles, or a prescribed standard, code or other document, in negotiating or disputing a matter under or in relation to the relevant lease; or
- (f) require a mediator, conciliator, arbitrator, tribunal, court or other decision-maker to have regard to particular matters or principles, or a prescribed standard, code or other document, in mediating, conciliating, hearing or deciding a matter or proceeding relating to a relevant lease; or
- (g) provide for a dispute resolution process for disputes relating to relevant leases, including, for example, by providing for the following—
- (i) who may apply for dispute resolution;
 - (ii) how the dispute resolution process is started;
 - (iii) the appointment and jurisdiction of mediators to mediate disputes;
 - (iv) the conduct of mediations;
 - (v) the conferral of jurisdiction on a tribunal to hear and decide disputes;
 - (vi) the referral of disputes to a court or tribunal; or
- (h) prescribe any other matter necessary for, or incidental to, facilitating a matter mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (g).
- (2) A regulation under this section may—
- (a) be inconsistent with an Act or law, other than the Human Rights Act 2019, to the extent necessary to achieve a purpose of the regulation and this Act; and
 - (b) have retrospective operation to a day not earlier than the commencement of this Act; and

[s 24]

- (c) provide for a maximum penalty of not more than 20 penalty units for a contravention of the regulation. 1
- (3) Without limiting subsection (2)(a), to the extent a person's act or omission complies with a regulation made under this section that is inconsistent with an Act or law, the person does not incur civil or criminal liability under the Act or law for the act or omission. 3
7
- (4) A regulation under this section must declare it is made under this section. 8 9
- (5) This section does not limit a regulation-making power under the Retail Shop Leases Act 1994. 10 11
- (6) A regulation under this section expires on 31 December 2020. 12
- (7) The Statutory Instruments Act 1992, section 49(1) applies to the tabling of a regulation made under this section as if the reference to 14 sitting days were a reference to 14 days. 13
14
15
- (8) In this section— 16
lease includes a lease, sub-lease, licence or other agreement under which a person grants a right to another person to occupy premises, other than as a residence. 17

Part 8 Residential tenancies and rooming accommodation 25 26

24 Regulation-making power for residential tenancies and rooming accommodation etc. 27 28

- (1) A regulation under this Act or the Residential Tenancies and Rooming Accommodation Act 2008 (the RTRA Act) may 29 30

- make provision for any matter necessary for responding to the COVID-19 emergency, including—
- (a) to ensure rights, obligations and processes under the RTRA Act operate appropriately having regard to COVID-19 response measures; and
 - (b) to assist in achieving the objectives of COVID-19 response measures; and
 - (c) to support the Queensland residential rental sector during the COVID-19 emergency period.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), a regulation may—
- (a) impose a moratorium on evictions of tenants and residents during the COVID-19 emergency period; or
 - (b) alter the grounds on which notices to leave may be given; or
 - (c) enable particular disputes about unpaid rent to be conciliated by the Residential Tenancies Authority; or
 - (d) suspend a right or obligation under the RTRA Act in particular circumstances; or
 - (e) provide for applications to be made to, and decided by, a different entity to the entity provided for under the RTRA Act; or
 - (f) prohibit the inclusion of particular matters in a tenancy database within the meaning of section 457 of the RTRA Act; or
 - (g) amend a residential tenancy agreement or rooming accommodation agreement, including, for example, by—
 - (i) extending the term of the agreement; or
 - (ii) terminating the agreement; or
 - (iii) if there is more than 1 tenant or resident for the agreement—ending the interest of a tenant or resident in the agreement; or

[s 24]

- (h) extend the application of particular provisions of the RTRA Act to additional persons. 1
- (3) A regulation under this section may— 3
- (a) be inconsistent with an Act or law, other than the Human Rights Act 2019, to the extent necessary to achieve a purpose of the regulation and this Act; and 4
6
- (b) have retrospective operation to a day not earlier than 19 March 2020; and 7 8
- (c) impose a penalty of not more than 100 penalty units for a contravention of the regulation. 9 10
- (4) Without limiting subsection (3)(a), to the extent a person’s act or omission complies with a regulation made under this section that is inconsistent with an Act or law, the person does not incur civil or criminal liability under the Act or law for the act or omission. 11
12
13
14
15
- (5) A regulation under this section must declare it is made under this section. 16
17
- (6) This section does not limit a regulation-making power under the RTRA Act. 18 19
- (7) If there is an inconsistency between a regulation made under this section and any of the following, the regulation prevails to the extent of the inconsistency— 20 21
22
- (a) a provision of an Act or law, other than the Human Rights Act 2019; 23 24
- (b) another regulation made under the RTRA Act; 25
