

Question on Notice
No. 1502
Asked on 29 November 2006

MR GIBSON ASKED THE MINISTER FOR EMERGENCY SERVICES (MR PURCELL) –

QUESTION:

With reference to Tin Can Bay which is a discrete community located on the Cooloola Coast approximately 50kms from the city of Gympie -

- (1) What plan does his department have to upgrade the current infrastructure for all emergency services located in Tin Can Bay?
- (2) What is the current level of staffing for all emergency services located in Tin Can Bay?

ANSWER:

- (1) The construction of a replacement Auxiliary Fire and Rescue station and a replacement Ambulance station at Tin Can Bay are included as projects on the interim Strategic Infrastructure Plan.
- (2) Refer attachment 1.

Current staffing level for all Emergency Services located in Tin Can Bay as at 31 October 2006

Division	Tin Can Bay Headcount
Queensland Ambulance Service	3
Queensland Fire and Rescue Service	4 (Auxilliary)
Emergency Management Queensland	Emergency Management Queensland has an active State Emergency Service group in Tin Can Bay of 30 members.