MS LEE LONG asked the Minister for Health (MR ROBERTSON)-

QUESTION:

With reference to the provision of laundry and administrative services, such as Human Resource Management, for the Tablelands Health Service District—

Is he considering closing these services and relocating them and centralising them at Cairns Base Hospital and will he give an assurance that these services will remain at their present locations?

ANSWER:

There is no intention of relocating or centralising any district services from the Tablelands to Cairns Base Hospital.
