QUESTION:

MR WELLS asked the Minister for Environment, Local Government, Planning and Women (Ms Boyle)—

With reference to the positive response in the community to the impending establishment of a new conservation park in my electorate, namely the 125 hectares of mangrove wetlands at the end of the esplanade to which she has referred in the House to as the “Deception Bay Conservation Park”—

Will she confirm that this will be the name of the new park?

ANSWER:

Yes, I am pleased to confirm that it will be named Deception Bay Conservation Park. It is a name that recognises its locality and is a compliment to the local residents because it is in such good condition considering its proximity to residential areas
